Dune Rug

Design by Hem

A generous knit in the softest New Zealand wool and a palette of muted, natural colors lend the Dune Rug a feeling of understated luxury. Edges are hand-serged, and a closely attentive weaving process keeps the surface smooth and seamless. The thick weave is complemented by a contrasting cotton warp, while generous loops of wool create a feeling of rich texture and depth. The Dune Rugs are produced in India by a weaving collective to global ethical standards such as GoodWeave, SGS, and Woolmark.
