Fact Sheet

Glitch Throw

Design by Sabine Marcelis

The Glitch Throw is a characteristically strong and singular design from Sabine Marcelis. It features a motif of a digitized brush stroke; a simple expressive gesture captured, made epic, and applied to a different kind of canvas. These especially thick and warm throws are made from fine New Zealand lambswool using traditional weaving techniques. They feature a whip stitched edge and a brushed finish for extra depth and cosiness. Choose your favorite Glitch Throw from four colors for colder climates or chilly days.
